November 06, 2004

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to apologize for the late reply to the Office letter dated 03/08/2004.

I recently moved and we went through at least nine months of constructions. The street I moved on and I am living on for now was non-existent prior to the residential development. The mail services were available on and off for a couple of months. Also, as usual with any move, belongings get lost or can't be found for a while.

Given the situation explained above, please suggest us a reasonable way to correct the situation.

Please find attached:

- 1) Confirmation letter no. 7347 mailed on 03/08/2004; copy to be returned with the response.
- 2) The Declaration including my signature
- 3) Copy of the page in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale that specifies the Closing Date of November 14, 2003 as a confirmation of the recent move.
- 4) A self-addressed stamped envelope.
- 5) The business card of the homebuilder company that could confirm that the works in the area have been completed in August 2004.

Respectfully,
Marian Gavril
